

HEMP SEED OIL

WITH TUMERIC EXTRACT

Hemp Seed Oil is extracted by cold pressing the seeds of the plant, which is the necessary procedure to preserve the outstanding characteristics of this oil. Its efficacy has been demonstrated in the treatment and prevention of several diseases like arteriosclerosis, arthrosis, psoriasis, high cholesterol. Our oil is also enriched with organic curcuma extracts, which has anti-inflammatory properties. It is perfect on roasted potatoes and vegetables, and highly recommended for all kinds of sauces.
